

BETH - WOOD BASEBALL LEAGUE
2011
CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MANAGERS / COACHES

1. All Managers and / or Coaches must be certified in accordance with Cal Ripken policy established by Babe Ruth League prior to the start of their first game or else they will NOT be allowed to Coach.
2. All Managers and / or Coaches must sign the Code of Conduct on the signature line provided at the end of this form acknowledging that they have read the Code and fully understand its provisions.
3. All Managers and Coaches will abide by the following rules:
 - a. Prior to the start of the game, choose the field's designated bench area that is appropriate for your team (home team sits on the first base side and the visiting team sits on the third base side). If this is a practice game or scrimmage or no team has been designated as home or visitor, then a coin flip will determine who will be the home team. If the game is being played on a field without a designated bench area, then the Manager should determine a reasonable bench area for his/her team. This area should be in a reasonable position so that all players may view the game at all times and yet be sufficiently away from the baselines and home plate to provide a safe margin of area that foul balls or errant throws can be pursued. The designated bench area should be free of spectators and NO spectators will be allowed between the bench area and the playing field.
 - b. All players not actively in the game must be in the designated bench areas.
 - i. A player is actively in the game if that player is fielding, batting, on base, the on-deck batter or warming up at the Manager's / Coach's direction. A player serving as a 1st or 3rd base Coach is also actively involved in the game.

- ii. A Coach is actively involved in the game if coaching 1st or 3rd base, or pitching (in the Rookies League). A Coach is not actively in the game (not permitted out of the designated area) when his Team is on defense.
- c. All equipment must be intact / safe for their intended use, and kept away from the field of play.
- d. All unauthorized persons must be kept away from the bench area and from interfering with the players on your team during games. This includes parents and spectators (No exceptions will be allowed, due to insurance restrictions) !! They should be requested to sit and observe the game from designated bleacher areas.

The maximum number of Coaches (including the Manager and scorekeeper) allowed per team within the bench area may not exceed a total of four (4) adults.

- e. Any and all questions directed to the umpire or opposing team shall be made by the Manager (NOT Coaches) who shall first request time out from the umpire. When the umpire calls time out, the Manager will then address the umpire in a civil manner at home plate in a modulated voice taking care not to alarm, disturb or harass any player or Coach, or to let their voice carry in any way that the fans might become vocally involved.
- f. Any and all perceived rule infractions by any Manager during a game must be addressed immediately when they occur by pointing out the rules in question to the umpire and opposing Manager in accordance with subsection e of this Code of Conduct. Any infraction or rules violation that is not raised contemporaneously when the infraction or violation occurs shall be deemed waived.

- g. All Players and Coaches shall be instructed by the Manager not to display poor sportsmanship in any manner, either physical or verbal!
- h. Any and all improper and inappropriate physical contact by the Manager or Coaches with any player who is actively in the game, especially base runner, is prohibited.
- i. All Managers, Coaches, and players shall refrain from exhibiting highly emotional conduct as such conduct influences spectators and other players. Managers, Coaches and players should always exhibit good sportsmanship at all times - it's contagious!!

Should spectators become highly emotional or use profanity during the course of a game the Manager of that team is subject to discipline for their behavior. Should it persist, the Umpires have the right to eject, after first giving a verbal warning, any and all spectators who exhibit this behavior from the ballfield site immediately, upon direction to the Team Manager accordingly; if that Manager refuses to obey this direction, the Manager could be subject to immediate ejection, and Team may be subject to forfeit as well.

- j. Once a game has started, the Umpires are in full control of the Players, Managers and Coaches; they are instructed to forfeit the game for breaches of conduct they determine is detrimental and may eject any Player, Manager, or Coach that violates the rules. Again, please remember that judgment calls (i.e., balls, strikes, calls at bases, etc.) cannot be questioned .
- k. Any and all breaches of conduct by Managers and / or Coaches may be reported to the B - W Executive Board by any witness to the alleged inappropriate conduct. The Board may impose any discipline up to and including the removal of a Manager or Coach from his or her position.
